

Best Executive Search Firm 2017

Hill Consulting is an Executive Find Firm with its headquarters at Rotterdam The Hague Airport, the Netherlands. We invited founder Elly de Vrijer to tell us more about the firm.

 Hill Consulting Group was founded in 2004 by Elly de Vrijer, a passionate, self-motivated woman who has made her mark in the ICT industry in various sales management and related functions at well-known international companies. The company believes it is important to maintain relationships and this is something Elly believes is integral to the success of Hill Consulting Group, which also separates themselves from other competitors.

"Hill Consulting Group prides itself on collaborating with its clients, becoming their trusted advisor and partner of choice. They value their long-term client relationships, which have generated numerous rewarding experiences. The clients of the firm are large to medium-sized companies in the private sector with subsidiaries in The Netherlands and the rest of the world. The company helps the client find top-level Executives & Sales for leading companies throughout the world.

"Overall, the reason behind our success is that we feel strongly about listening to their clients and candidates, using empathy and building trust. Candidates also respect the firm for a personal touch, attention, clear understanding and by coaching them, along the way, to a new step in their career."

Alongside this, the firm are always looking to improve in whichever way they can; notably bringing in more candidates to different and new roles. Based in the Netherlands, Elly feels that the location of the firm is beneficial, particularly in Rotterdam. The experience within the company of finding talent enables the firm to look towards the future, and selecting people for new roles is something the firm has been doing for years.

"Located centrally in Europe, close to UK companies, our level of education is high and we speak more languages (of course Dutch but also English & German). Specific benefits being in the Rotterdam Region is that we are opposite the airport terminal and, through our quality service, are able to prove to some of the most influential people in the country that we are as good as we say."

Moving forward, Hill Consulting Group can look forward to building on their continuous success, building and maintaining strong relationships with their clients, diversifying their client range even more.
